

WELCOME TO CHRIS DEWEY
PROFESSIONAL COACHING
SERVICES

I am particularly interested in working with people who are committed to creating a life of balance in all areas of mind, body and spirit, and who embrace the challenge of living a life of awe-filled discovery.

I resonate most strongly with clients who seek life-long learning opportunities, and who strive for understanding not just about themselves, but about their sense of place and belonging in the world.

The types of clients with whom I most readily resonate include:

- Professionals whose lives are in transition or who stand at a threshold.
- Health and wellness professionals
- Academic professionals
- Undergraduate, graduate and recently graduated students
- Small-business entrepreneurs
- Martial artists

All too often it is easy to get caught up in life and end up just doing it, rather than really living it. I want to work with clients who seek a deepening awareness that they are humans being, rather than humans doing!

"Over 12 years, Dr. Dewey's role in my life has taken on many forms: martial arts coach, mentor, professor, life coach, and now close friend. Words fail to express the depth of insight and compassion he brings into every relationship in his life. His energy and words have profoundly impacted my growth as a veterinarian, an endurance athlete, and most importantly, a student of life. No matter what your life goals or career path, Chris possesses an intuition that helps one identify and clear away the fears and roadblocks that surround our deepest ambitions. I will be forever grateful." MS
