

What the Clients Say:

AW, Hawaii: The clarity Chris Dewey helps you discover within yourself is a truly invaluable journey. Whether it's personal accountability, major career changes or decisions, or simply mapping out the values that guide your life, it's been wonderfully refreshing knowing that I do in fact have the answers, sometimes we just need a little help stirring them up.

AL, Texas: I recommend Chris and endorse his qualifications, knowledge, friendship and professionalism. He has mentored me for over a decade. I appreciate all that he has done for me. He has an understanding that is impartial and can help one to see the bigger picture. He is a perfect example of "good people."

BJ, California: Chris has always focused on helping others achieve their own potential. A strong mix of personal and academic skills honed through practical experience and tireless dedication, I heartily recommend Chris for anyone looking to further develop themselves in a holistic manner.

CL, Mississippi: As a client of Chris Dewey Professional Services, I highly recommend this service. I have been a client of the coaching service for over one year and it has been one of the best personal and professional decisions I have made. I have gained higher consistent energy levels, greater organization in my life, and a sense balance and presence that I cannot remember ever having. It takes courage and honesty to participate in such a process but it is truly life changing and empowering.

CC, Maine: It feels really great to have such different energy. I still vividly remember where I was a few months ago, and that's a good thing. I won't let that happen again. I should not have waited as long as I did to talk to someone, but then I didn't know about life coaching before that. Still, things happened the way they did, and I'm in a far better place now, so it's all good. I have tools now that I didn't know I had. It's so empowering to know this and to act on it. Really cool stuff. Thanks so much for being my coach!!!

CK, Texas (1): I could not possibly express enough gratitude for your offerings -- your questions, your insight and deep wisdom, your raw honesty and true integrity in all you do. We are both truly thankful you would give so much of your time, energy and gifts in such an unquestioningly generous way. We talked more last night together post meeting and more deeply buried gremlins were shared and released -- we have never had such a powerful and quick cleansing and deepening in both our individual and partnership's evolution. Powerful is an understatement. So, thank you. You have MUCH to offer the world.

CK, Texas (2): I am very interested in, at some point, pursuing life coaching. I have always had interest in varying facets/degrees of psychology and counseling/coaching, and if you would dare believe it, the ONE session I had with you was inspiring enough to push me over that last ledge of self limiting doubt and admit that I want to be a life coach in some form or fashion, and to implement that into my future as a healer. Only one session with you made me realize how huge of a difference a gifted life coach can make in someone's life. (Put that in a testimonial, because I mean it!)

DM, Michigan: Chris' calm, inquisitive demeanor, combined with his strong intuitive gifts, provide a fabulous space to explore and uncover what's going on underneath a situation.

GK, Texas: The conversation we had took me through so many emotions. [...]. When I got in the car I felt myself processing so much and continue to process. I cried for the first time last night in over a year. I could barely believe it. Like what is this fluid coming out of my face. [My partner] and I had yet another amazing breakthrough and I was able to let myself be vulnerable in a way I have not been able to in a very long time. I feel lighter and renewed. I am not gonna lie, you are a tough coach. There were times last night where my ego got struck hard. You are a blessing to those around you. [...] Just in the short time I have known you, you have changed my life. I have taken steps and cannot go back. After our conversation I know this more clearly than ever before. Thank you.

LT, Massachusetts: Chris is a phenomenal coach. In coaching, we deal a lot with inner blocks, or those things that might be preventing us from being successful or reaching our full potential. Chris has the ability to get to the root of whatever the underlying blocks might be, often before the client is even aware that there are any underlying blocks! He is non-judgmental, compassionate, and willing to do whatever it takes to be supportive of the clients he works with. He is a master at his craft.

LP, Mississippi: Chris practices a kind of ruthless compassion: He cares about you too much to let you wallow in the limiting beliefs that have held you back. He never presumes to have answers for you. Instead, he holds an unwavering belief in your innate wisdom. He has an uncanny ability to ask just the right question to point you to your own answer. If you are looking for a coach with warmth and insight who is committed to helping you align your life with your authentic self, Chris is the man for the job.

MS, Pennsylvania: Over 12 years, Dr. Dewey's role in my life has taken on many forms: martial arts coach, mentor, professor, life coach, and now close friend. Words fail to express the depth of insight and compassion he brings into every relationship in his life. His energy and words have profoundly impacted my growth as a veterinarian, an endurance athlete, and most importantly, a student of life. No matter what your life goals or career path, Chris possesses an intuition that helps one identify and clear away the fears and roadblocks that surround our deepest ambitions. I will forever be grateful.

NR, Florida: Chris is a coach that has a unique ability to see a situation for what it is at the core. I highly recommend Chris to anyone who is serious about making dramatic shifts in their personal development and is looking for a coach that is precise, reliable, direct and intelligent.
